TO OUR GUESTS

Commencement is the highlight of the academic year. It is that significant occasion, both solemn and joyful, when we honor those students who have completed their courses of study. Commencement is important to you, the university and its faculty, staff and students.

While the university respects the rights of all to express their views, we require that any such expressions during these Commencement proceedings neither disrupt the ceremony nor prevent others from enjoying it.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Towson University seeks to cultivate relationships with Native American and Indigenous communities and nations through academic pursuits, partnerships, historical recognitions, community service and enrollment efforts. These communities and nations include the Susquehannock, Nentego (Nanticoke) and the Piscataway people, who consider the land that the university currently occupies part of their ancient homeland. We hereby acknowledge the ground on which we reside so that all who come here know that we recognize our institutional history and our responsibilities to the peoples of that land and that we strive to address that history so that it guides our work in the present and the future. ## ALMA MATER

*Oh Towson, our alma mater
Set up on the hill,
Where bells of our Stephens Hall
Ring proudly ever-still
Make more than your memories
Take the lessons learned
They give us each our story
As the pages turn
From different paths we've come
Down different paths we'll go
With change and through time
Our spirits grow
Oh Towson, our alma mater
Make your story told
And find moments to look back
To days of black and gold*

CONGRATULATIONS FROM PRESIDENT GINSBERG

Class of 2025:

On behalf of everyone at Towson University, I extend my heartfelt congratulations on reaching this incredible milestone.

Today's ceremony is a truly joyous occasion—for you and your classmates, your family and loved ones, our faculty and staff, and our entire university community. It is a celebration in recognition of all that you have achieved and all that you will accomplish in the future.

While Commencement marks the formal conclusion of your academic program at TU, I am confident that it is a step toward your continuing and life-long pursuit of knowledge. It has been said the most successful people never stop learning. Today will be the day that you launch your unwavering and unending commitment to your field of study, your career, your community and your family.

I hope you enjoy today and experience a sense of great pride, knowing you have gained the knowledge, skills and wisdom to overcome career and life challenges. You leave our campus well-prepared to make a difference in important and consequential ways. This is your charge: to help solve the problems of our time and to help make life better for us all.

You now become members of a distinguished group—Towson University alumni—joining more than 200,000 Tigers across the globe who are making a positive impact every day. I know you will carry on this legacy and show the world just what it means to be a Towson Tiger.

You have earned your stripes, and as you know, a Tiger never loses its stripes. Go forth with the knowledge and experience you've gained at TU, and continue to make us all #TUproud.

And always remember—let's roar together. Go Tigers!

Sincerely,

Mark R. Ginsberg, Ph.D.
President

UNIVERSITY TRADITIONS

Regalia

Commencement is both a celebration and an academic ceremony. As such, Towson University is guided by the Academic Costume Code as outlined by the American Council on Education (ACE). All Commencement participants are encouraged to maintain a measure of decorum consonant with the occasion.

The caps and gowns worn by degree candidates and faculty in the academic procession have been the traditional costume of the scholar since medieval times and probably represent an adaptation of the ecclesiastical dress since many of the scholars of that period were members of monastic orders.

The bachelor's gown is distinguished by its long pointed sleeves. The master's gown has longer, narrower closed sleeves, extending below the knee; the arm is passed through a slit at the elbow. Finally, the doctoral gown has a full bell-shaped sleeve with three bars of velvet and an opening faced with wide velvet bands. The velvet trim may be black or of a color indicating the field of learning of the wearer or the institution from which the wearer earned their highest degree.

At Towson University, graduate students also wear hoods on top of their gowns, trimmed in a colored velvet band to indicate the degree earned.

The Alma Mater

Two graduating students sing and sign the Towson University Alma Mater during every Commencement ceremony. The music was composed by J. Kyle Richards and orchestrated by Brian Balmages.

Ceremonial Mace

The ceremonial academic mace first appeared in European universities during the 14th century and was carried before royalty, mayors of cities and chief officers of the medieval universities. The academic mace represented the amalgamation of two much older pieces of history, the regal scepter and the medieval battle mace.

The mace is considered one of academia's most treasured symbols of office. It is a fitting symbol and combination of the requisite discipline and earned stature that comes with the academic achievement.

Towson's University's mace is beautifully constructed in glass, black metal, gold and maplewood coming together to represent institutional concepts and a visual history of the university. Our mace was commissioned and gifted by the late President Emerita Maravene Loeschke. It was designed and executed by four faculty members in the College of Fine Arts & Communication: Joshua DeMonte, Jenn Figg, Kimberly Hopkins and Jon Lundak.

Gonfalons and Banner Carriers

Gonfalons—also known as heraldic banners—are ceremonial banners carried on a long pole by students to represent each college, graduate studies and the Honors College. Gonfalons display the names of each college that represent different fields of study. Originally used in military and religious ceremonies, they have been a common part of educational celebrations since the Renaissance era. At Commencement, these banners line the stage, identifying the university's academic colleges and entities.

The academic mace is typically carried by a Grand Marshal into the ceremony to signify the start of the processional.

Presidential medallion bearing the university seal

International flags displayed on stage during Commencement

International Flags

The university is dedicated to cultivating a global learning community and international focus in programs and curricula. The flags displayed on stage during Commencement represent a sampling of the 72 home countries of our international students, faculty, exchange scholars and visiting faculty.

Latin Honors

Latin honors are awarded by college, to undergraduate students in the top 10% of their graduating class based on the cumulative grade point average of all coursework completed in residence at Towson University. In order to be eligible to earn Latin honors, students must have earned at least 56 units in residence at Towson University. Latin honors GPA cutoffs for each college are based on the top 10% of the students from the graduating classes of the previous academic year. Students with majors in two or more colleges earn the highest Latin honors for which they are eligible.

Honors are evaluated after the ceremony and will appear on the transcript and diploma when awarded.

The Presidential Medallion

The medallion is circular, symbolizing the continuous impact that Towson University has in the lives of those who learn here. The outermost circle contains the university name and location. At the center is the university seal.

University Seal

The university seal is adapted from the reverse of the Great Seal of Maryland. At its center is an escutcheon, or shield, bearing the Calvert and Crossland arms quartered on an antiqued gold background. Above is an earl's coronet and the pennants. The university's founding year, 1866, is inscribed on a banner beneath.

Ceremony Etiquette

Commencement at Towson University is a formal and friendly ceremonial occasion. To ensure that all participants and guests have a positive ceremony experience, we ask that everyone in attendance demonstrates courtesies and behaviors befitting the dignity of this formal academic and personal milestone. We encourage all participants and guests to refrain from engaging in any behavior that disrupts the ceremony or prevents anyone in attendance from hearing each graduate's name or seeing each graduate walk across the stage (e.g., audible private conversations, excessive and boisterous yelling, blocking the view of others).

For Degree Candidates

- All degree candidates are expected to remain at their seats until the conclusion of the ceremony and may not leave before the final recessional.
- Candidates for bachelor's degrees, please note that the mortarboard should be worn so that it sits parallel with the ground, with the tassel hanging to the right. During the ceremony, the officiant will ask undergraduate degree candidates to move their tassels from the right front side of the mortarboard to the left as a mark of the official awarding of their degree. Master's and doctoral candidates should wear caps with the attached tassel hanging to the left.
- Please remain seated for the duration of the ceremony. Degree candidates will be directed to stand and exit the arena when appropriate.

For Guests

- All seating in SECU Arena is first-come, first-served, general seating.
- Guests are requested to remain in their seats during the ceremony and not congregate on the concourse. Guests should also not block the aisles or passageways by attempting to greet or take photos with degree candidates.
- Tripods and other photographic or video equipment may not be placed on the floor of the arena or in the aisles as doing so creates congestion in walkways that must remain clear for safety reasons.
- To allow for the names of all degree candidates to be heard by their family members and guests, we ask all audience members to be considerate of other graduates' guests by providing no more than 2-3 seconds of celebration or applause for their graduate. Guests who bring or use signs, fireworks, beach balls, balloons, air horns, bells or noisemakers will be asked to leave the arena.

WELCOME FROM ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

FALL 2025*MASTER OF FINE ARTS DEGREE*STUDIO ART

Zachary Antonio Diaz is a Baltimore-based visual artist, curator, educator, and arts administrator. His artwork, initially inspired by cloud formations, creates abstract atmospheres through vibrant color contrasts and multiple layers of marks. Primarily working in oils, his nonrepresentational paintings and monotypes capture energetic battles between motion and stillness, destruction and harmony. Diaz is the Program Manager for the Maryland Institute College of Art's Pre-College Residency Program, an Adjunct Professor at Towson University, and an Emerging Curatorial Intern at Hamilton Gallery in Baltimore, MD. He has attended Artist Residencies at The New York Academy of Art in SOHO, NY, the International Center for the Arts in Umbria, Italy, and the 701 Center for Contemporary Art in Columbia, SC. He has exhibited his work in numerous solo and group exhibitions in the United States and abroad, including Formations at Zo Gallery in Baltimore, MD, Letters at Stormwater Studios in Columbia, SC, and Homecoming at Patriot Hall in Sumter, SC.

Alexis Renee Irby is a Maryland-based visual artist and educator. She is an adjunct professor at Towson University and Coppin State University. Her art draws inspiration from both nature and post-consumer objects. She has exhibited sculptural work in a variety of gallery exhibitions in Maryland, Washington, D.C., and Delaware. Alexis has two bachelor's degrees in art education and art & design, with a concentration in the fine arts. She taught high school art in Howard County before pursuing her MFA at Towson.
