

Certified Associate in Project Management (CAPM®) Certification

Jump start your project management career with a CAPM® certification.

WHY EARN A CAPM® CERTIFICATION?

Earning a CAPM® certification shows you have the basic skill set for entry-level project management roles, and you're capable of growing and excelling in the project management field.

BENEFITS OF A CAPM® CERTIFICATION

- ▶ Earn an average of $66k
- ▶ 6% job market growth
- ▶ Career advancement
- ▶ Access to a global network of project managers

ROLES FOR CAPM® HOLDERS

- ▶ PMO Specialist
- ▶ Associate Project Manager
- ▶ Project Coordinator
- ▶ Project Analyst

HOW TO EARN YOUR CAPM® CERTIFICATION

Requirements as outlined by PMI® to apply for

CAPM®
certification exam

EDUCATION BACKGROUND

Secondary diploma (high school diploma/global equivalent)

AND

PROJECT MANAGEMENT EXPERIENCE

23 contact hours of formal education

OR

EDUCATION BACKGROUND

Secondary diploma (high school diploma/global equivalent)

AND

PROJECT EXPERIENCE

1,500 hours of professional experience on a project team

Continuing and Professional Studies

CONTACT US

coned@towson.edu

410-704-2334

continuingeducation.towson.edu