Drawing on some of her research on shifts in U.S. television in the 1980s, Dr. Bajoghli ties this to narrative transitions from that period to today. Her talk will take into account everything happening in the Middle East right now.

Dr. Bajoghli is the author of Iran Reframed: Anxieties of Power in the Islamic Republic (2019) and co—author of How Sanctions Work: Iran and the Impact of Economic Warfare (both with Stanford University Press). She is also a documentary filmmaker (The Skin That Burns) and has written a graphic novella, Sanctioned Lives.
